

---

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Employer: Global Polyglots Net., Madagascar
Open to: All interested candidate (native and non-native speakers)
Position: English Language Instructor
Closing date of application: November 7, 2019
Start date: As soon as possible, after an interview.
Employment type: part-timer or full-timer (on needed basis).
Work Location: Antananarivo

GPN is an organization aimed at providing outstanding language and consulting services while helping amateurs and professionals in the public, private and education sectors to overcome language barriers and management challenges that could limit their performance and hinder their educational, business and leadership careers.

Profile

Able to teach English to students of various levels, different backgrounds and interests; willing to work on a flextime system (during weekdays and/or weekends, day time and/or evenings); of balanced temperament with the ability to make impartial and non-emotive judgements; with high moral integrity and interpersonal skills; patient, with attention to detail, heightened sense of responsibility and value of punctuality; reporting to the "Teaching Program/Project Coordinator."

Must have

B.A or B.S in English or related field; three years of teaching EFL/ESL or equivalent experience in related field; professional level of English language (as regards speaking, reading, writing, listening); a solid background in U.S. culture and history; basic classroom management skills; ability to coach and work cooperatively with colleagues; highly developed communication abilities as well as basic computer and internet skills.

Should have

Understanding of Malagasy culture and customs, willingness to work with other GPN staff members on teacher development projects (for periodical, on-the-job training).

Ideally with

American or British accent (not others); ability to design and develop curriculum; ability to teach social, business and professional English; great enthusiasm, high creativity and innovative method.

How to apply

Cover letter, resume (CV) with recent photo and copies of degree, diploma and certificate mentioned in the application as well as two letters of recommendation (academic and professional) should be handed in to the address seen below or sent by email to info.mada@gpn.services before Nov. 7, 2019.

Please note: only the short-listed candidates that will be contacted for an interview.